MEDICIN U.

Some little door or window of the system has been left unlocked and the frightful visitor has stolen in. If the house of life had been well guarded it never would have happened. Consumption can be kept out just as well as any other disease can—if you strengthen up the weak places of the system and keep them strong. When the system begins to show signs of poor, weak, impoverished blood; when digestion fails and weight goes down from the normal standard, then is the time to be anxious and slide the bolts against dangerous disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery fills the blood with the life-giving red corpuscles which vitalize the entire circulation. It builds up wasted tissue; nour-ishes the nerves; rounds out sunken cheeks and emaciated forms; brings back appetite and digestion, sound sleep and strong healthy vitality. It does not make flabby fat like cod liver oil, but solid muscular flesh and nerve force.

Mrs. L. F. Coates, of Blythebourne, Kings Co., N.Y. writes: "Three years ago, I was so sick could not eat, sleep or walk, for I coughed all day and night. The first night that I slept for hours at one time, was after I had taken three doses of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The offensive matter expectorated grew less every day and when I had taken the whole of one bottle I could sleep all night without coughing, and have been well ever since and weigh 178 pounds." The Common Sense Medical Adviser" is gray macintoshes said to have once been in the Confederate army. In ocuvers. front of them was a band on whose drum was the name "S onewall," and riding in front of the band a gray bairof gentleman who is said once to have ommanded the "Stonewall Brigade," a tamous body of infantry in the Confederate army.

The musical feature of this particular part was good but the Shenaudoah Val-Veterans, which is the name under which they ma queraded, was a sorry set to behold. They had not all seen the Confederate army, in fact some were not within the Confederate lines iuring the war, but the most of them ad gone to the inaugural to show and did show, that "while e'er the lamp holds out to burn, the vilest inner may return." These were doves returned to the ark, but not in such quantities as had been advertised. Not over one hundred and twenty, in cluding all the fakes they had dressed for the occasion, were on hand, and it to be hoped that not one except the general commanding was ever in the Stonewall Brigade.

The first thing that happened to these veterans was when the parade started, that they were about to be placed in the rear of a negro organization. Why they objected to this no one seems to know, but they objected and trouble brewed for awhile. The negroes of course were then relegated to the resr and they objected and very naturally, —But Sambo, who had always been loyal, had to take a back seat, whil t the "Old Confed" on whom the light of loyalty had only recently burst was put in front. When favors are distributed, if ever, Sambo will find himself again relegated to the rear. How glad the President must have been when he saw the efforts of his riend Funkhouser, of Rockingham, who is said to have originated this idea, and who wants for his trouble only the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General's place or any other place Mr. Mckinley has to bestow.

Few in numbers, rough in appearance, and absolutely without military regulation, they waddled up the avenue, as a Washington lady expressed it, "like the rear guards of Coxey's army." The gray mackintoshes in which they were uniformed !!! were singularly unbecoming, and having been used as sleeping gowns for a few nights were filled with creases and looked like unwashed salt sacks, the whole gang wearing a kind of "they

Many bands, with gorgeous drum majors, interspersed the procession and they blew and blew and blew Perhaps the most brilliant uniforms of all were those worn by the celebrated and once highly regarded "Stonewall Band," of Staumton. They led the "Patriotic Legion," supposed to be composed of the ex Confederates from the Shenandosh Valley. It was a rather sheepish looking crowd of a hundred or so men, clad in gray mackintoshes—some of which looked as though they had been slept in—led by the Rev. A. P. Funkhouser. This was part of the same crowd that went on the deadhead excursion to Canton be-[Staunton Spectator Vindicator.]
